Online Privacy is a constantly evolving landscape and PFC plans to take all reasonable efforts to maintain up to date and effective online privacy standards and practices. We have linked every page of our web site to this page for your convenience and you may also contact us at privacy@pfc.org with any questions or concerns that you may have.

Introduction

We at Prisoners for Christ ("PFC") are committed to respecting your online privacy and recognize your need for appropriate protection and management of any personally identifiable information ("Personal Information") you share with us.

PFC has established this Online Privacy Policy so that you can understand the care with which we intend to treat your Personal Information.

Personal Information means any information that may be used to identify an individual, including, but not limited to, a first and last name, a home or other physical address and an email address or other contact information, whether at work or at home. In general, you can visit PFC's Web pages without telling us who you are or revealing any Personal Information about yourself.

PFC strives to comply with all applicable laws around the globe that are designed to protect your privacy. Although legal requirements may vary from country to country, PFC intends to adhere to the principles set forth in this Online Privacy Policy. If, in connection with the above, we transfer your Personal Information at your request for purposes of ministry work from your country to countries that may not require an "adequate" level of protection for your Personal Information, our goal is to provide protection for your Personal Information no matter where that Personal Information is collected, transferred, or retained.

If you chose to have a relationship with PFC, we will naturally continue to contact you in connection with that business relationship.

Third Party Services

Third parties provide certain services available on Pfc.com.org on PFC's behalf. PFC may provide information, including Personal Information, that PFC collects on the Web to third-party service providers to help us deliver programs, products, information, and services. Service providers are also an important means by which PFC maintains its Web site and mailing lists.
